THE DEFENSE OF HAVANA.

Havana, April 26.—Gen. Arolas explained to the lieutenants of volunteers in Havana yesterday his plans for the military defense of the capital. Arolas is military commander of Havana. Blanco absolutely relies on him. Blanco is well known in Havana, is feeble in body and mind.

Arolas' plan is to extend the military zone of Havana as much as possible, surrounding the city on land side by a trench defended by 20,000 regular soldiers. He expects by this means to keep the insurgents' fire away and to maintain zones of cultivation between the Spanish lines and the city proper in order to raise vegetables to feed the garrison.

One tenth of the volunteers will defend the main entrances to the city. They will also furnish half the troops to garrison the Cuban fortress and Morro castle, the other half to be composed of regulars.

The batteries of La Punta Reina and Santa Clara will be manned only by regulars. The battery of Santa Clara, which is the most important of all, will be commanded by Capt. Nunez who enjoys among Spaniards the reputation of being a first class artillery officer.

Arolas said that he hoped soon to have in Havana 40,000 regulars. "With them and 30,000 volunteers," he said, "I think Havana will prove to be impregnable."

SAMPSON'S FIRST SALUTE.

Key West, April 26.—Admiral Sampson's first salute was given by an Italian man-of-war. Saturday the smoke of a steamer was seen a few miles eastward. The flagship and the Porter started for her immediately, but when they drew near they found that she was the Italian man-of-war Giovanni Bausan, bound for Havana.

The Italian ran the American colors up to his masthead and fired a rear admiral's salute of fifteen guns, it being the first salute Rear Admiral Sampson had received from a foreign warship since his appointment to his present rank. The New York returned the salute, and as the firing occurred only a few miles off shore the incident probably created consternation in Havana.

KENTUCKY SHARPSHOOTERS

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—Victor Dodge, of this city, who expects to head a company of sharpshooters in Cuba, is about twenty-four years old and the champion of the Lexington Gun Club. "Vic" says that he will guarantee "a shot at Weyler" to every man who joins his company. According to plans, this company will be composed of the best marksmen of Central Kentucky.

PROBABLE BATTLE AT MANILA.

Naval Authorities Predict an Engagement at Philippine Islands in the Next Three Days.

ASIATIC SQUADRON GOING THERE

Under Commodore Dewey to Establish a Blockade, and May Have to Fight the Spanish Vessels There.

THE REBELS THERE WAITING FOR HELP.

Washington, April 26.—The best naval authority here says that a naval battle near Philippine Islands is certain within the next three days.

The orders to Commodore Dewey, are to destroy or capture all Spanish vessels in Philippine waters, and then cause the capitulation of the principal ports.

Commodore Dewey's squadron consists of seven fine warships, while the Spaniards have but one good cruiser at Manila, the Reina Christina, of 3,500 tons, four effective gunboats of less than 1,200 tons and half a dozen smaller craft of no fighting value. The defenses of Manila are poor.

New York, April 26.—The following cablegram to the Herald says: Hong Kong, April 24.—Maj.-Gen. Black, acting governor of Hong Kong, has issued a proclamation stating that having received official notice from the British colonial secretary that a state of war exists between Spain and the United States, he calls upon all British subjects to observe the neutrality laws.

Commodore Dewey today informed the governor that he would depart from British waters immediately. The Boston, Concord and Petrel sailed this afternoon for Mira Bay, about thirty miles from Hong Kong. The Olympia, Baltimore and Raleigh will join the others tomorrow. All six have been painted the color of gray and are fully laden with coal, ammunition and supplies.

Mr. O. F. Williams, United States consul at Manila, is expected to arrive on Tuesday with important news as to the condition of affairs in the Philippines.

The anchorage in Mira Bay is in Chinese jurisdiction, and the fleet can there complete its preparations for active operations.

Washington, April 26.—It is not anticipated here that the Asiatic squadron will encounter much difficulty in establishing the blockade of the Philippine Islands. The Spanish fleet there is weak and the rebels are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the American fleet.

THE CUBAN CAMPAIGN.

Key West, Fla., April 26.—The latest plan of campaign, and the one almost certain to be followed, contemplates the occupation of Cuba, without the necessity of bringing any of Uncle Sam's ships into range of the Havana forts. Briefly, the plan is this:

Blockade the harbor of Havana, using as many of the ships in the squadron as Capt. Sampson deems necessary to make the blockade airtight. Land as large a force of United States troops as can be mobilized at Mantanzas, Cuba. Blanco and almost, if not quite, the entire strength of his army are in Havana. Food is so scarce in Havana that it has trebled in price in the past two weeks.

With the harbor blockaded by an American fleet and food supplies from the interior shut off by an American army, it will be a question of but a few weeks at the outside when the Spanish will have to evacuate Havana or starve. Blanco will be forced to either capitulate or come out and fight the American army. He will probably choose the latter of the two evils, and his chief reliance, the big guns in Morro and Cabana, will be as useless to him as though they were spiked.

That 25,000 American troops are more than a match for the largest army that Blanco can possibly muster in Cuba, no one who is familiar with military affairs, excepting possibly a Spaniard, doubts. With the flying squadron and such ships in North Atlantic squadron as are not occupied in the blockade to look after Spain's warships, the Spanish

AMERICAN WAR SHOULD BE A MATTER OF HISTORY SIX WEEKS AFTER THE FIRST AMERICAN SOLDIER SETS FOOT ON CUBAN SOIL.

SHERMAN'S RESIGNATION.

Washington, April 26.—Another resignation from the cabinet occurred yesterday when the venerable Secretary of State Mr. John Sherman, handed his resignation of the premiership to the president. The resignation was to take effect at once, and with it Mr. Sherman retires from public life, after a service of over forty years, embracing the house of representatives, the United States senate, the secretaryship of the treasury and the secretaryship of state. The reason for the resignation is the condition of the secretary's health, which is now impaired as the result of years of devotion to the public service and the arduous labors of a lifetime, added to age, the venerable secretary being now within a few days of seventy-five years of age.

The secretary's resignation was tendered in a simple note tendering to the president the portfolio intrusted to him upon the inauguration of President McKinley and asking that it take effect from the close of the day.

Judge W. R. Day, First Assistant Secretary of State, has been named to succeed Sherman, while Mr. John B. Moore, an acknowledged authority on international law, and for some time Second Assistant Secretary of State, was appointed to succeed Judge Day.

BASIL DUKE.

Washington, April 26.—Gen. Basil Duke is being mentioned as a possibility for appointment as Major General of volunteers. It is understood the president desires to distribute these commissions equally among the various sections of the country, and among democrats as well as republicans. Gen. Joe Wheeler and Gen. Lew Wallace are also tipped. The house appropriations committee is working on a special bill carrying the necessary amount to take care of the volunteer army.

BLANCO GETTING GAY.

Key West, April 26.—It is reported that General Blanco has notified his government that he can hold Havana with no help from a fleet.

POLO MAY HAVE TO GO.

Washington, April 26.—It is reported here that the English government will notify Senor Polo to leave Canada.

WANTS TO FIGHT.

Madrid, April 26.—The captain of the Spanish fleet at Cape Verde Islands wants authority to sail against the American fleet. He threatens to sail without authority if not ordered to go.

THE TEMERARIO.

Buenos Ayers, April 26.—The Spanish gunboat Temerario is still lying at anchor in the outer roads at Montevideo, and it is believed that she will remain there for the present. The United States battleship Oregon and the gunboat Marietta have not yet been sighted. Subscriptions for war purposes, which have been undertaken by the Spaniards here are meeting with good success.

MAY BE COMING.

New York, April 26.—The Maritime Exchange has posted a notice asserting that it had been informed by the navy department that a Spanish squadron, headed by the battleship Pelayo, sailed from Cadiz over a week ago.

No information as to its destination has been secured, but the department inferred that it was bound for the Atlantic coast. It cautioned ship owners to be on the lookout.

REGIMENT OF COWBOYS.

Washington, April 26.—The president has decided to appoint Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, at present assistant secretary of the navy, to be a lieutenant-colonel of United States volunteers to serve in a regiment of cowboys and mounted riflemen to be raised by Mr. Roosevelt and Dr. Wood, the president's family physician, who is now in the medical department of the regular army. Dr. Wood will be colonel of the regiment.

The war with the United States promises to cost her the last of her colonial possessions in the West Indies.

But no one can tell what will be the result of her rapidly increasing domestic troubles—the cabinet crisis, the dissensions among statesmen and warriors, the intrigues of the Carlists, the plotting of Weyler and

CAPTURING SPANISH VESSELS.

Reported Capture of a Spanish Transport Today With 1,000 Soldiers—Very Valuable, if True.

WHERE ARE THEY GOING?

Washington, April 26.—Some apprehension is felt in naval circles regarding the destination of the Spanish fleet composed of the battleship Pelayo, two cruisers, four torpedo boat destroyers and three torpedo boats which left Cadiz, apparently for the Cape de Verde islands, to join the fleet there.

Latest reports from St. Vincent make no mention of their arrival and the belief is gaining ground here that the ships are bound for our Atlantic coast.

It is thought that the despatch of the fleet cruisers Minneapolis and Columbia may have some connection with the anxiety regarding the whereabouts of the Spanish vessels. The Columbia and Minneapolis could cruise in a big circle, pick up the Spanish fleet and then run back at high speed and notify Commodore Schley, who would go to meet the enemy with the entire flying squadron.

THIS IS GOOD WORK—LET IT GO ON.

Washington, April 26.—A report from Key West this morning says that three more Spanish vessels have been captured and will soon be brought there as prizes.

Washington, April 26.—A bulletin from Key West says that a Spanish transport ship with 1,000 Spanish soldiers was captured by our fleet today at noon.

Key West, April 26.—It is rumored here this afternoon that still more Spanish prizes have been captured today.

The name of the big Spanish auxiliary cruiser captured is the Panama.

OTHER BLOCKADES.

Washington, April 26.—From the fact that the state department has not been called upon so far to prepare any proclamation giving notice of a blockade of either Forto Rico or the Philippines, it may be set down as a fact that the naval forces are not ready to move in that direction. It is the usual practice, as was shown in the proclamation relative to the blockade of Cuban ports, to give due notice to all foreign powers by declaration of an intention to blockade and, although it is not absolutely necessary to follow this course, it is believed that the state

ROMERO ROBLEDLO AND THE POPULAR AGITATIONS. THE STREET DEMONSTRATIONS IN THE CAPITAL AND ELSEWHERE HAVE ASSUMED SUCH A THREATENING CHARACTER AS TO CAUSE THE GRAVEST CONCERN TO THE QUEEN AND HER GOVERNMENT.

All these political dangers are aggravated by the financial disturbances in Madrid and a dozen principal towns in the provinces, marked by an alarming run on the silver reserve of the Bank of Spain, a fall in the prices of securities of every kind and a rise of exchanges, sending the gold premium to 75 per cent. These things have made the politicians and everybody else pay less attention to the news from America and Cuba, starting as it is.

The press advises the people to desist from demonstrations, which might become inexpedient and dangerous. The newspapers attribute the financial panic to the Hebrew bankers and speculators.

It is impossible to describe how bitter the Spaniards are against the English, and the feeling increases every day.

"England is the only European power," the Spaniards say, "that is paralyzing the energetic action of the other countries to force America to take her hands off Cuba."

This feeling is fostered by continental diplomacy, which encourages Spain to hope that the powers will interpose as they did between Japan and China and between Turkey and Greece to prevent any excessive settlement after the war that could damage the finances of the institutions of Spain.

MILITARY MATTERS AT HOME.

The Local Company Not Yet Notified When to Leave—Lieutenant Harding Is Expected.

PATNETIC SCENES OCCURRING

At the Recruiting Office—The Volunteers Expect to Be Mustered in Tomorrow and Elect Officers.

THE BOYS ARE ALL ANXIOUS TO GO.

The soldier boys have received no definite instructions in regard to when they leave. They are in readiness to be called out at any time, and expect Lieut. Harding tomorrow to muster them in.

A great deal of interest is now being taken in the approaching election, which will not be possible until the company is mustered in. Messrs. Will Farley and Mense Harris are candidates for first and second lieutenant. Mr. Farley is a disciplined young man, having attended military school, and the prospects for his election seem good.

The boys will probably be sent directly to Ft. Thomas to be drilled. They will probably be drilled here by Captain Davis before they leave.

Last night at a meeting there was great enthusiasm, and quite a number added their names to the list, increasing it to a score more than are needed.

There were one or two pathetic incidents. One boy was there with his mother. He was only 16 years old, however, and was several inches below the requisite height. His mother gave her consent for him to go, but he could not be accepted. His disappointment was very sad.

Another boy who is under age, had the consent of his mother. The note she sent in to the captain was pathetic—in the extreme. She said her son was determined to go, and had threatened to run away and go if she didn't give her consent, and she gave it to please him. She added, however, that she did not think it would be right to take her son from her and asked that he be refused.

A knotty problem confronts those in command of the state guard at present. It is the matter of equipment for uniforms. Numbers of the recruits have to drill in civilian's costume on this occasion. At Frankfort such uniforms as they have are being sent the companies which have been mustered in throughout the state. It is said that the supply is growing short. If this be true, it is thought that the government will

CONGRESS PREPARING FOR WAR.

The War Revenue Bill Reported to the House Today, and Will Take a Vote on it Friday.

VOLUNTEERS RAPIDLY RESPOND.

Orders Issued for the Mobilizing of the Kentucky Militia—Governor's Appointments Are All Made.

GOVERNMENT WILL EQUIP THE TROOPS.

Washington, April 26.—The War Revenue bill was reported to the house today. It was decided to take a vote on the bill Friday. The Naval Appropriation bill which passed the senate yesterday appropriates $8,830,000 to enable the secretary of the navy to enable men for the navy during the existing war. Representative Bland, of Missouri, will offer an amendment to the Revenue bill providing for the coinage into silver dollars of $42,000,000 worth of the accumulated seigniorage.

STATE VOLUNTEERS.

Washington, April 26.—The responses to the call for volunteers by the state governors have been very prompt, and this afternoon soldiers are mobilizing in nearly all the state encampments.

It is evident that five times the number called for could be easily secured.

No Legislative Session Needed.

The United States government will equip the soldiers. This will set at rest the gossip that a legislative session would be incident to the equipment of soldiers.

Col. Gaither said that he preferred that his regiment (the second) should be mobilized at Lexington. Col. Castleman said his regiment, being located in Louisville, would be mobilized at headquarters there. Col. Smith expected his regiment to be mobilized in Louisville.

BARRETT'S SCHEME.

Bangkok, Siam, April 26.—United States Minister Barrett suggests that after America captures the Philippine islands, she should negotiate with Great Britain to exchange them for the latter's West Indies colonies.

apparent for believing that the war will be less than six months in length. It is not impossible that this country will have to send its fleets to the Spanish coast and bombard coast cities, or even that Spain will have to be invaded before the war can be closed. The only uncertain feature of the war is its length, and it may be a most serious problem for this nation to bring the war to a close, after it has attained all the objects that were sought by the war.

There is no doubt that the course of Great Britain in our controversy with Spain tends to dispel to a very great extent the prejudices of our people towards her. Nor can it be doubted that there would have already been an armed and threatening condition of European monarchs against the United States but for the refusal of Britain to give sanction to such a combination. There is a natural sympathy amongst the rulers of Europe in favor of each other and a strong dislike against the United States on account of the Monroe doctrine. Europe has assumed for centuries past to dictate the policy and make the laws for the earth, all of which were based on the divine right of ruling. The United States arose and declared king rule must not be extended on this side of the Atlantic. This is a standing threat and menace to the hopes of monarchical extensions of power in the western hemisphere. Great Britain being a free government has acceded to our claim to prohibit further conquest for colonial aggrandizement. The alliance of Great Britain and the United States would build up a power against absolutism so lofty and strong that every concession is made to prevent such consummation. In the meantime Uncle Sam will just pursue the even tenor of his destiny and insure that this hemisphere shall be ruled by the people therein.

Our morning contemporary exercises its editorial brain in the attempt to discredit the statement made by the Sun that the action of President McKinley on last Thursday, the 21st, in ordering the American fleet to move Havana, was a declaration of war. In view of that ridiculous contention of the Register, it is interesting to note that yesterday congress passed a bill saying, "that war be and the same is declared to exist, and that war has existed since the 21st day of April A. D. 1898, including said day, between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Spain." All the Register needs to catch up with the procession is time. If its editor will read the Sun closely its news report will be much more up to date and fresh than it is.

The President will stand forth in history as one of the grandest statesmen of the age in which he lived. As a contrast to Napoleon, he appeals to the thinkers of the world. Napoleon waded through seas of human blood to short-lived fame. William McKinley is going to free a suffering people, after having first exhausted every effort to make the war for freedom bloodless.

OUR morning contemporary denotes as usual this morning a large position of its valuable(?) space to explaining one of its fake items of news. With commendable regard for its readers, it attempts to explain but one fake at a time.

OUR BATTLESHIPS.

Washington, April 26.—Everybody is interested in the movements of the ships of the American navy, and where they now are.

The battleships Iowa and Indiana, cruisers New York, Detroit and Cincinnati, gunboats Nashville, Castine, Marblehead, Wilmington, Newport, Machias and Helena, monitors Terror, Puritan and Amphitrite, torpedo boats Dupont, Cushing, Ericsson, Foote, Winslow and Porter, torpedo boat destroyers Mayflower, forming the fighting fleet under command of Capt. Sampson, are blockading ports on the northern coast of Cuba and Cienfuegos on the southern coast.

The cruisers San Francisco and New Orleans are at New York to be overhauled.

Battleships Massachusetts and Texas, cruisers Brooklyn, Minneapolis and Columbia, forming the flying squadron, under Commander Schey are at Hampton Roads.

Battleship gunboat Vesuvius is at Newport, R. I.

Cruisers Newark and Montgomery are being repaired at the Norfolk (Va.) navy yard.

Cruisers Tecumseh and Osceola are at Norfolk (Va.) navy yard to be remodeled.

Torpedo boat Rogers is due at Key West.

Collier and Saturn are loading with coal at Norfolk, Va., for the flying squadron.

Auxiliary cruiser Dixie is at Newport News.

Gunboat Vicksburg is at Hampton Roads.

Dispatch boat Dolphin, torpedo boat Cushing, monitor Terror, gunboat Helena and auxiliary cruiser Hornet are at Key West.

Cruiser Topeka is on her way from Falmouth, Eng., for New York.

Cruisers Chicago and Atlanta are at the Brooklyn Navy yard being remodeled.

Cruiser Nietheroy has been bought from Brazil, and sailed from Rio Janeiro loaded with coal.

Monitor Nahant, manned by New York Naval Reserves, is at New York.

Torpedo Somers is still at Falmouth, Eng., disabled.

The battleship Oregon and the gunboat Marietta are on their way from the Pacific, and are supposed to be near Cape Horn now.

Monitor Menominee has left Valparaiso, Cal., for Puget Sound.

Cruisers Baltimore, Olympia, Concord, Raleigh, Boston, Monocacy, gunboat Petrel, revenue cutter Hugh McCulloch and auxiliary cruiser Zafiro, forming the Asiatic squadron, are at Hong Kong, ready for sea, and will sail for Manila today or tomorrow to blockade the Spanish ports of the Philippines.

Auxiliary cruiser Merimac has been in dry dock at Norfolk (Va.) Navy yards, but has orders to sail.

Monitors Montauk and Lehigh have just been put in commission at League Island Navy yard.

The monitor Catskill is about to sail for Boston with the Massachusetts naval reserves. Monitor Miantonomah is sailing southward.

Surprise Wedding.

Mr. Crossland and Miss Cora Davidson, Married This Morning.

Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson Performed the Ceremony at the Residence of Mrs. Hook.

A surprise wedding occurred this morning about 8 o'clock at the boarding house of Mrs. Hook, at Fifth and Clark streets. Mr. Crossland and Miss Cora Davidson were married by Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, in the presence of the boarders and a few guests.

The couple had been sweethearts for some time, but the young lady's parents objected to the match on account of her age. She only recently returned from a several months' visit to upper Kentucky, and the marriage was agreed on a day or two ago.

The license was procured, and in the meantime the young man met the bride by appointment at Seventh and Adams streets, and they proceeded to the boarding house. Here everything was in readiness for the ceremony, and in a few moments they were one.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. E. B. Davidson, the contractor, of South Eighth street, and is a pretty and popular young lady. The groom is a collar maker at Rehkopf's, and is a gentleman admired and respected by all who know him. He is leader of the Second Baptist church choir.

The couple will have rooms at Mrs. Hook's.

Horrible Death of Mr. Elisha Grief This Morning at the Seamon Heading Factory.

Arm Caught in Lathe.

Lived But a Few Moments After Being Pulled Out—Leaves a Family Here—Born and Raised in Paducah.

Mr. Elisha Grief met a horrible fate this morning at the Seamon Heading factory. He was almost instantly killed by being drawn into a huge cutting machine, or lathe.

Mr. Grief lived on South Fourth street, 829, and has a family. He was employed as night watchman at the factory, and was removing the shavings from the knives. It was about 7:20 o'clock this morning.

According to eye witnesses, he was near the hood which protects the knives, either scraping the shavings away, or preparing to do so. His hand or sleeve caught in the knife, and his arm drawn into the machine entirely to the shoulder. The member was cut into small bits, and the flesh stuck to the blades until it looked like a sausage machine.

Several men witnessed the horrible sight, and one who was near, rushed to the rescue, and attempted to pull the unfortunate man out. He was placed on the floor, and was never conscious. He lived only a few moments.

The blood was scattered for several yards around, and the machine as well as the material was covered with it. Drs. Boyd and Murrell were soon on the scene, but the victim was dead. He died from the shock, and would have died to death if the shock had not killed him. His arm was ground off to the shoulder, and part of the shoulder was cut off.

The unfortunate man's family was notified, and the remains carried to Effinger's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

The deceased was about 45 years old, and had been a resident of Paducah for many years, with the exception of about 16 years spent in Fulton. He moved back here a few months ago from that place. The deceased was a brother of Messrs. Joe and George Greif, the butchers, and leaves a family, including besides a wife, four or five daughters.

The deceased, Mr. E. L. Greif, leaves three brothers, Messrs. Joe T., George W. and Adrian, and one sister, Mrs. Carrie Mitchell. He also leaves a half brother, Mr. Victor Greif, and two half sisters, Misses Gusta and Rena Greif.

GROUND TO PIECES.

Horrible Death of Mr. Elisha Grief This Morning at the Seamon Heading Factory.

Arm Caught in Lathe.

Lived But a Few Moments After Being Pulled Out—Leaves a Family Here—Born and Raised in Paducah.

Mr. Elisha Grief met a horrible fate this morning at the Seamon Heading factory. He was almost instantly killed by being drawn into a huge cutting machine, or lathe.

Mr. Grief lived on South Fourth street, 829, and has a family. He was employed as night watchman at the factory, and was removing the shavings from the knives. It was about 7:20 o'clock this morning.

According to eye witnesses, he was near the hood which protects the knives, either scraping the shavings away, or preparing to do so. His hand or sleeve caught in the knife, and his arm drawn into the machine entirely to the shoulder. The member was cut into small bits, and the flesh stuck to the blades until it looked like a sausage machine.

Several men witnessed the horrible sight, and one who was near, rushed to the rescue, and attempted to pull the unfortunate man out. He was placed on the floor, and was never conscious. He lived only a few moments.

The blood was scattered for several yards around, and the machine as well as the material was covered with it. Drs. Boyd and Murrell were soon on the scene, but the victim was dead. He died from the shock, and would have died to death if the shock had not killed him. His arm was ground off to the shoulder, and part of the shoulder was cut off.

Surprise Wedding.

Mr. Crossland and Miss Cora Davidson, Married This Morning.

A surprise wedding occurred this morning about 8 o'clock at the boarding house of Mrs. Hook, at Fifth and Clark streets. Mr. Crossland and Miss Cora Davidson were married by Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, in the presence of the boarders and a few guests.

The couple had been sweethearts for some time, but the young lady's parents objected to the match on account of her age. She only recently returned from a several months' visit to upper Kentucky, and the marriage was agreed on a day or two ago.

The license was procured, and in the meantime the young man met the bride by appointment at Seventh and Adams streets, and they proceeded to the boarding house. Here everything was in readiness for the ceremony, and in a few moments they were one.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. E. B. Davidson, the contractor, of South Eighth street, and is a pretty and popular young lady. The groom is a collar maker at Rehkopf's, and is a gentleman admired and respected by all who know him. He is leader of the Second Baptist church choir.

The couple will have rooms at Mrs. Hook's.

To Be Happy

or cheerful or useful is next to an impossibility when one is suffering from a discomfiting cold or a nasty little cough. If you are "down in the mouth" from the effects of a cough or a cold, you will find your delight in the use of a 25c bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. Druggists sell it.

AFTER A PARDON.

Relatives of Pinkney Childers, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for alleged robbery, are circulating a petition asking Gov. Bradley to pardon him. Quite a number of signatures have been secured.

A FORTUNATE RUB.

Bootblack Receives an Unusual Fee for a Shine.

Twenty dollars for a "shine" is a fabulous amount, but that is exactly what was realized by a knight of the brush in front of Camden station the other afternoon.

The fortunate man was George Emory, one of the best-known characters around the busy depot, and last night he was congratulated on every side on his fortunate "rub." George, as he is familiarly known, has been blacking boots at Camden station for nearly 17 years, and he is a familiar figure to the hundreds of regular patrons of the road. He is a cripple, having lost both his legs in 1881 in a peculiar manner.

In that year he was an oyster dredger, and one cold night down the bay both his legs were frozen. They did not receive proper care, and when Emory reached Washington, both the limbs were amputated.

George has a very pleasant face, and his pitiable condition has very often drawn forth precepts, but yesterday was the first time he ever received $20 for polishing two shoes. The man who made the present was not long past the voting age, and was very neatly dressed. When the brush manipulator had finished the job the customer asked him how much he generally charged.

"Oh, five or ten cents, as you choose," said Emory.

"Will you take what I give you and promise not to look at it for five minutes?" asked the gentleman.

Emory did so, and when the allotted time was over he found the big note in his hand. He carried it to the ticket office, where a close inspection showed it to be genuine. Emory says that he doesn't care if the young comes every day. — Baltimore

A good many people have been wondering what has become of the patriotic citizens of Mayfield since the call for volunteers. It is somewhat remarkable that a company of some sort has not been raised from the good citizens of Graves. They used to have a pretty nice company in the state guards. It is said that nearby all the old soldier boys of Mayfield are married now, and cannot leave their wives.

"When the third call comes, then you'll see me going," asserted an old soldier at the court house yesterday.
"I have gone through one war, and I never get men in another one, but if there is a third call for volunteers,
I'll know that I am needed, and I
I'll go without a moment's hesitation.
I have two boys, and they can go now. At the third call I'll go myself. I left the old lady once to fight and I guess I could do again."

"The worst feeling about a battle, perhaps," averred a grizzled old fellow, "is just before one, or just at the clash. The suspense before a battle is terrible, almost as bad as the clash itself. Just before the conflict you are kept marching around and maneuvering, trying to get the best position, and it is then that you have such awful misgivings and fears.
You know there is going to be a fight,
but you don't know anything about it.
The lieutenants and captains don't know any more than you do. This you are kept in suspense until drawn up in line of battle, when you know what is coming. The clash is the most terrible thing in existence,
I guess, and you never get over it,
and it never loses any of its horrors for you."

Chief of Police Barber has experienced the trials and vicissitudes of war. He was telling some of his experience at the city hall last night.
"My first experience," he said,
"was in Capt. Apperson's company.
Thoroughly imbued with the conviction that secession was right, I could not wait for them to organize a company at home, but went to Memphis, where an aristocratic company of young fellows known more for their foolishness than for their courage, was being organized. There was a lot of red tape before you could get in. Finally we were organized, and Capt. Apperson, who was a rich man, equipped us in the best at his own expense, and we started forth in sixty days looking for a Yankee but not once did we come in sight of the enemy. We heard that Columbus was menaced about the time our tour was over, and went there to offer our services to Gen. Polk. Walking up to the general, our captain said: 'We desire to tender you our services, sir.'
"What are you?" he haughtily asked Gen. Polk.
"Capt. Apperson and company."
"What command?"
"Independent command."
"Well, we don't have any independent commands here. Go down there to the quartermaster and be sworn in and we'll accept your services."

"Well, Capt. Apperson left in high dudgeon, and we went to Memphis and disbanded."

PLANTATION PHILL CURE is Guaranteed.

A FEW WAR STORIES AND OBSERVATIONS.

Dr. J. G. Brooks had an unenviable experience during the rebellion.
He was telling it to a crowd of friends the other day.
"When the war broke out," he said, "I got on 'hoss' and came to town. I had a pretty good horse, and a thousand men couldn't have kept me and that 'hoss' out of the army. I had made up my mind that when I came home, I would bring me a Yankee under each arm to work my tobacco patch. Well, I came to town to enlist, and nobody tried to keep me and that 'hoss' out of the army. It was just about two weeks until ten thousand men couldn't keep me and that 'hoss' in the army
—if we could have gotten out. It was not long until I entirely abandoned the idea of bringing home any Yankees. I didn't care anything about my tobacco patch—all in the world I wanted was to get back home again. But it was too late, for I had to serve my time out."

Mr. Geo. Oehlschlaeger, sr., also had a thrilling experience here during the war. He was walking along Main street, when he chanced to look in an old brewery, owned by the late Mr. Fisher, and saw that there was no one in. He walked in and proceeded to help himself to a glass of beer or two. While he was thus engaged, several rebels walked in, and one of them took aim and fired at him. He was thus engaged, several rebels walked in, and one of them took aim and fired at him. He was
